

Peter A. Allard School of Law
University of British Columbia

Lecturer Appointment (part-time, without review)

The Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia invites applications for a part-time lecturer position. The successful candidates will be assigned teaching and administrative duties, specific to supporting and leading the work of the UBC Innocence Project at the Allard School of Law. More information on the Innocence Project can be found here:

<http://www.allard.ubc.ca/innocenceproject/ubc-law-innocence-project>

The successful applicant will:

- Teach Law 470 (The Innocence Project) for academic terms September – December and January and April. This includes all end-of-course work and marking.
- Serve and lead the UBC Innocence Project as Director; oversee and supervise the work of student employees and volunteer lawyers; ensure the goals and objectives of the Innocence Project are met; lead strategic direction.
- Contribute to fundraising efforts in support of the program.
- Participate in developing and managing the program's budget.

The appointment will commence August 15, 2017 and will conclude on August 14, 2018 with a salary commensurate with the qualifications and responsibilities.

WHO WE ARE

The Allard School of Law offers varied and rigorous professional programs to a talented and diverse student body in JD, LL.M and PhD programs. Situated within an outstanding public university, and located in one of the most open, diverse and beautiful cities in the world, we offer an inspiring environment for legal scholars and students to study law and its role in society, and to make a contribution to improving lives in our local communities, across Canada, and around the world. More information on the Peter A. Allard School of Law is available at www.allard.ubc.ca and <http://www.allard.ubc.ca/about-us/allard-school-law-strategic-plan-2016-2021>.

QUALIFICATIONS

An LL.B., J.D. or equivalent law degree and teaching experience are required. Advanced graduate training in law or related disciplines is preferred. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applicants should submit (1) a cover letter indicating interest in the position and information describing specific qualifications, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) the names of three referees, and (4) evidence of teaching effectiveness, such as a summary of teaching evaluations, if available. Complete applications should be submitted by 4:30pm, on June 2, 2017 to the attention of:

Dean Catherine Dauvergne
c/o Rosanna Falbo
Peter A. Allard School of Law
1822 East Mall
Vancouver, BC, V6T 1Z1

e-mail: falbo@allard.ubc.ca

UBC hires on the basis of merit, is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community, and seeks to recruit candidates with the skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities. We especially welcome applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.