Student Loan Eligibility

If you are planning to take courses during the summer session and would like to be eligible for full-time government student loans, make sure you meet the following requirements.

- Register in at least 9 credits; and
- Register in at least 12 consecutive weeks of course work; and
- Ensure that there is a break of no longer than 10 consecutive business days between courses (the gap between the last day of class and the final exam for the same course is not counted as a break in studies)

If you are registering in the JD classes offered in both terms of the summer session AND are registered in a minimum of 9 credits during this period, then you will qualify for full-time student loans.

You will apply for your loan using the 2014/15 application, which should currently be available for all provinces. Generally, processing time is 4-6 weeks, depending on your home province, so it is important that you apply early.

If you are going to apply for a summer loan, also be sure to apply for UBC Summer Bursary through the SSC. The application opens on May 1 and will close on June 1. Only those students who meet the general bursary criteria will be considered for summer bursary.

To be considered for bursary support, you must:

- be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident or landed immigrant
- apply for the UBC Bursary program by the deadline
- be receiving full-time government student loans during the same session that you are applying for bursary support
- have your enrolment confirmed for your student loans by the bursary deadline.
- have an assessed financial unmet need
- be enrolled in an eligible program

To make sure your student loan is confirmed by the bursary deadline, we strongly recommend that you apply for your student loan by April 1st for Summer session bursaries.

If you have any questions about summer session loans, please email the Enrolment Services Professionals team at: es.lawsupport@ubc.ca

Students pursuing full-time studies must complete a minimum of 60 credits in total over their 2nd and 3rd years of study to obtain the 92 credits required to graduate. In the winter session, to maintain eligibility for student loans and bursaries, students must enroll in 60% of a full-time course load (or 9 credits/term). To maintain eligibility for awards, students must enroll in a minimum of 27 credits in the winter session.

Students who entered the Allard School of Law prior to September 2012 and pay a flat tuition fee (not per credit) should contact Assistant Dean Kaila Mikkelsen for advising as the registration, credit allocation and loan information stated above may not apply to you.
