5931

Jack Giles, Q.C. Award in Advocacy

Awards totalling $4,000 have been made available through an endowment established by Farris, Vaughan, Wills & Murphy LLP in honour of Jack Giles, Q.C. to students entering the J.D. program at the Peter A. Allard School of Law. In addition to good academic standing, eligible students will demonstrate a commitment to community service. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated a keen interest in advocacy through student government, community involvement or other activities. After receiving his law degree from UBC in 1959, Jack Giles appeared for nearly 50 years as trial and appellate counsel in courts throughout Canada, in virtually all areas of the law, as well as appearing before federal and provincial tribunals. Both in practice and through his roles in numerous organizations throughout his distinguished career, he was a leader in advocating for a number of important matters, including access to justice, the rule of law, an independent judiciary, civility to fellow members of the bar, and independence of the bar. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Peter A. Allard School of Law.

Stikeman Elliott Entrance Scholarship in Law

Scholarships totalling $8,000 have been made available annually through a gift from Stikeman Elliott LLP for outstanding students entering first year of the J.D. program. Preference will be given to students with (1) an undergraduate or graduate degree in business, and/or (2) a background or work experience in the business field. The scholarships are made on the recommendation of the Peter A. Allard School of Law.

Kim-Bautista Award in Law

Awards totalling $1,200 have been made available through an endowment established by Nicco Bautista (B.A. 2010, M.A. 2013, J.D. 2013) and Maria Kim-Bautista (B.A. 2010, J.D. 2013) for students in the J.D. program who are the first in their family to attend law school and have demonstrated academic excellence and community service. Preference will be given to students who identify as Black, or as a person of colour. Financial need may be considered. Nicco Bautista and Maria Kim-Bautista immigrated to Vancouver as children, were both the first in their families to attend law school, and are now lawyers practicing in Vancouver. Nicco and Maria were actively involved in student leadership and community service during their time at UBC. They established this award to support law students with similar backgrounds to their own. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Peter A. Allard School of Law.

*Applicants for this award must complete the Section D. Financial Assessment part of this Application.

☐ 5873      ** Hilda Janzen Memorial Award in Feminist Legal Studies

An annual award of $18,000 is offered by Sonya Wall in memory of Hilda Janzen. The award is for a student in any year of the UBC Law JD Program, including first year, who has achieved good academic standing, has demonstrated leadership and community involvement in feminist issues, and faces challenges, financial or systemic, in accessing or continuing legal education. This award has been established to honour a woman who devoted her life to the advancement of women in professional fields. Hilda Janzen lived her belief that women could achieve their goals through education. Born in the early years of the Great Depression, a child of Mennonite farmers, Ms. Janzen completed normal school in Vancouver before spending a year travelling Europe and Asia. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in German and English at UBC and became a teacher whose passion for language, libraries and theatre touched many students’ lives. Her own life was cut short at the age of 49 by a battle with cancer. This award honours the incredible impact Ms. Janzen had on her community and reflects the love and esteem of her friends and family. A student who has held the Hilda Janzen Memorial Award in one academic year may apply for the award in subsequent years.

Applicants for this award must:

- (1) Complete the Section D. Financial Assessment part of this Application
- (2) Provide contact information for two persons who can speak to your eligibility for this award, preferably your involvement in feminist issues:
  - a. _____
  - _____
  - b. _____
  - _____
- (3) Describe below (in 1000 words or less) how you meet the criteria for the award. The Awards Committee will consider academic achievement; demonstrated leadership and community involvement in feminist and/or feminist legal issues; and any financial or systemic challenges in accessing or continuing a legal education. Please highlight any systemic or financial barriers you face beyond the high cost of legal education. Please address each of these criteria.
