

Mr. Hye Seong Lee joins CALS as a judge in South Korea, a position he has held since February 2007. Mr. Hye Seong Lee has been in charge of civil, criminal, household and administrative cases in various courts, including the Seoul Central District Court, and recently was in charge of administrative cases at Daejeon High Court.

Mr. Lee wants to study freedom of expression, limitations on it, and even hate expressions, and he plans to further examine these limits on freedom of expression during his visit to the Allard School of Law.