4. Program Schedule Overview

Students are responsible for managing their time and are expected to be fully engaged while participating in the program. Students should plan their affairs accordingly given the program schedule below:

Fall term: There will be training sessions every two weeks, primarily through Zoom with some in-person meeting time downtown, up until the start of Term 1 exams.

Spring term: Training and regular progress review most likely will take place in the evening on the same day as the Competition Policy class in Term 2. Students should plan to be available at such time. Term 2. Deadlines for each outline, factum and each rehearsal are tight. There will be at least two oral practice moots before practitioners and several inter-team moot practices. The schedule of deadlines starts during Christmas break until the moot competition in March.

The workload is reasonably demanding during both Term 1 and Term 2. During Term 1, the workload is no different than taking an extra 2 credit course. Because of factum filing deadlines in January, mooters should be prepared to work on their materials after Term 1 exams over the Christmas break and right up to the competitive moot dates held in Toronto. While past mooters have described the moot as particularly rewarding, especially in combination with the Term 2 course, there is no room for let up without harming the rest of the team.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION RE: GRADES COLLECTION AND DISTRIBUTION

1. Do I need to include my law school grades in my application?

All moots have their own application requirements that are set out in their fact sheets. Students should carefully review each program's fact sheet to determine whether law school grades are required to apply.

2. I did not apply for a program that requires grades. Who will get access to my grades?

If you did NOT apply to any experiential learning program that requires grades, your grades will not be provided to any experiential learning programs.

3. I have concerns about providing my law school grades to an experiential learning program. What should I do?

Grades are only one component of application packages. Often, grades are just used by a program as a source of additional information about a student's interest in an area of law or as a general indication of their academic progression. You do not need to have exceptional grades to be considered a strong applicant. If you have any concerns about providing your grades to a program, please contact Barbara Wang, Manager Student Affairs, before the application deadline.
