

IDEA Leaders 2024/2025 Application Form - Preview

The IDEA Leaders program is for any incoming student who identifies as a historically, systemically and persistently marginalized person in terms of one or more of the following groups:*

- first-generation university student;
- being from an economically disadvantaged background;
- disabled or with a chronic health condition that impacts their daily life;
- Indigenous;
- racialized; and/or
- 2SLGBTQI+

Others who identify themselves as benefiting from such a program, including students who are interested and have experience in justice, equity, diversity and inclusion work (allies and accomplices), are also welcome to apply. If you feel that you identify in terms of one or more of these groups, please complete the application questions below.

Applications will be reviewed by program staff and members of the IDEA Leaders Advisory Group. If you have any accessibility concerns with this application or any other questions, please email idea.leaders@allard.ubc.ca.

* We recognize that the terms used in this list may or may not be the language of choice for all those applying.

First Name: _____

Last Name: _____

Email: _____

Please click on the arrow below to proceed to the application questions. You can use the "back" arrow to return to previous questions if you want to edit them before submitting.

1. Describe a time that you stepped outside of your comfort zone to engage with someone different than you. (250 words max.)
2. What might be some challenges you think you could face at law school or in the legal profession because of your identity/lived experience? (250 words max.)
3. What do you hope to gain, learn, and/or contribute if you were part of the IDEA Leaders cohort? (250 words max.)
4. OPTIONAL: Is there anything else you'd like to add as part of your application? (250 words max.)

Please click the "forward" arrow below to submit your IDEA Leaders application.