Section B: Award List

The following award descriptions identify the criteria against which all applications will be reviewed. The information contained in the descriptions is accurate at publication time, but is subject to change. Please note that monetary amounts are tentative and may not be confirmed until Fall 2024. The awards with  are not yet confirmed for 2024; students should apply pending final confirmation.

Please read the descriptions carefully and mark a check (✓) in the box next to the awards for which you feel you may be eligible. Please ensure you apply for all awards that you are eligible for. Do not apply for awards where you do not meet the required award criteria.

Note re: Class Rank:

Some award descriptions state that a student must rank academically within the top 10% of their class. The Allard School of Law does not release rankings. Students considering whether they should apply for such an award should review the 2023-2024 Grade Distribution Letter available on the Allard School of Law website for guidance on their academic standing. A student who, after reviewing the Grade Distribution Letter, is in doubt about whether or not they are in the top 10%, is encouraged to apply rather than eliminating themselves from consideration.

General Awards

Some of the following awards (a) have specific qualifications which the applicant must possess or (b) indicate that preference will be given to applicants possessing certain qualifications. Please indicate, in point form, in the applicable box how you meet the specific qualification noted in the award description provided below. Note, awards which list a preference or a specific qualification may be awarded to a student without that qualification (but offering similar qualifications) if no suitable student with the qualification is identified. Do not exceed the space provided. Common criteria for many awards (such as community involvement) can be covered in the personal statement on page 36-37.

5888

Blakes Scholar Award in Law * This award is open to 2Ls only

Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP offers a $5,000 renewable award for a J.D. student entering second year who demonstrated academic excellence in their first year of studies (achieving a grade in the top 10% of the class). The award is renewable provided the student maintains academic standing in the top 20% of the class during their second year. Preference will be given to a student who demonstrates involvement in community service and extra-curricular activities, and individuals from groups that are underrepresented in the legal profession.

Law Foundation of British Columbia Public Interest Award Non-Academic Award

Thirteen awards of $5,000 each are offered annually by the Law Foundation of British Columbia for students entering 2nd or 3rd year of the JD program with good academic achievement and who have demonstrated through volunteer or paid work, outstanding commitment to working in the broader public interest sector, particularly in the fields of legal aid, legal education and law reform. Preference will be given to students who have traditionally been underrepresented in the legal profession and/or have worked in the broader public interest in rural areas of the province of British Columbia. These awards will be adjudicated by the Allard School of Law.

Peter A. Allard School of Law Athletics Award Non-Academic Award

Awards totalling $2,000 have been made available annually through a gift from alumni and friends of the legal community for second- or third- year J.D. students who have good academic standing and demonstrate athletic participation and/or achievement during and/or before law school. Preference will be given to students who demonstrate challenges in accessing a legal education. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Peter A. Allard School of Law. (First award available for the 2024/2025 winter session).

Robert S. Reid Award in Law

A $2,050 award has been endowed by friends and colleagues in honour of Robert (Bob) S. Reid's many years of service to UBC's Peter A. Allard School of Law and his contributions to the legal community in Vancouver. In adjudicating the award, academic achievement, athletic involvement, and the ability to serve, work with, and lead others are considered.

5903

UBC Law Rugby Award

Two $1,000 awards are offered annually by alumni and supporters of the UBC Peter A. Allard School of Law's rugby club. These awards are offered to students entering their second or third year of the JD program who have shown significant leadership as members of the club. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Peter A. Allard School of Law.

Borden Ladner Gervais Professional Excellence Award * This award is open to 2Ls only

Two awards of $2,000 each (total $4,000) are offered by Borden Ladner Gervais to full-time law students completing first year who have demonstrated academic excellence together with a commitment to professional and service excellence by consistently expanding their knowledge of the law, demonstrating the highest standards of integrity, offering innovative ideas, taking a collaborative approach and contributing to the community.

5906 B. Vincent REED, QC Award in Law * This award is open to 2Ls only

A $1,350 award has been made available through an endowment established in honor of Peter A. Allard School of Law alumnus B. Vincent Reed, QC. The award is for a student entering second year of the J.D. program who has achieved academic distinction and demonstrated commitment to the highest standards of the legal profession through involvement in community service or student leadership, thereby establishing the foundation of an exemplary legal career.

2858 McMillan LLP (Vancouver) Peter M. Bark Memorial Scholarship * This award is open to 2Ls only

A scholarship of $2,500 is awarded to a full-time law student who achieves high academic performance in their first year of law and has made a significant contribution to law school and community life. This scholarship is to honour the memory of Peter Bark, who worked as a law librarian at McMillan LLP, (formerly Lang Michener LLP), and died in 1990 at the age of 35 from complications arising from HIV/AIDS.

5833 The Christopher Walker Memorial Award in Law * This award is open to 2Ls only

A $2,000 award is offered by Farris, Vaughan, Wills & Murphy LLP to a student entering second year law who has demonstrated academic excellence together with a commitment to their community and fellow students. This student will also exhibit leadership qualities and the highest standards of integrity. Christopher Walker (1984 - 2013) graduated from the UBC Peter A. Allard School of Law in 2010 and was an outstanding young lawyer who practised corporate law with Farris LLP. The award is made on the recommendation of the Peter A. Allard School of Law.

5824 Steven Dorfman Memorial Award * This award is open to 2Ls only

A $650 award has been endowed by the Honourable Mr. Justice Max M. Teitelbaum, Mrs. Phyllis Teitelbaum, Judy and Ben Frank, and family and friends in memory of Steven Dorfman, a student who loved the law. The award is granted to an outstanding law student completing first year, ranking academically in the top 10% of the first- year class; demonstrating leadership abilities through involvement in community, university and/or law activities; and demonstrating other personal accomplishments.

5890 Alexander Holburn Beaudin + Lang Ernie Alexander, Q.C. Memorial Award in Law * This award is open to 3Ls only

The law firm Alexander, Holburn, Beaudin + Lang LLP has established a $1,000 award for students entering the third year of the JD program who has achieved high academic standing in their second year and has demonstrated involvement in community or student affairs. This award has been established to honour the memory of Ernest A. Alexander, Q.C. who passed away unexpectedly in 1983 and who, throughout his professional career, never lost sight of the human aspect of the practice of law. The recommendation will be made by the Peter A. Allard School of Law. Students must apply for this award.

2756 Mr. Justice Walter Kirke Smith Memorial Scholarship

A scholarship of $1,900, endowed under the auspices of the Vancouver Bar Association from contributions by members of the bench and bar, honours the memory of Walter Kirke Smith, late Justice of the Supreme Court of British Columbia. Mr. Justice Kirke Smith was a 1949 graduate of the Peter A. Allard School of Law who was noted for his scholarship, humour, and particularly his sympathetic but fair response to the problems of those who appeared before him, both litigants and counsel. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty, to a student entering second or third year in the Peter A. Allard School of Law, who has demonstrated excellence in his/her application to the work and life of the Faculty.

Elaine Borthwick and Allen Soroka Award in Law Non-Academic Award

Awards totaling $1,750 have been made available through an endowment established in honour of Elaine Borthwick and Allen “Al” Soroka (B.A., LL.B.) for domestic J.D. students over the age of 30 who demonstrate barriers to accessing a legal education. Ideally, the awards will be assigned to one student entering second- or third-year. As Director of Admissions at the Peter A. Allard School of Law for over 40 years, Elaine oversaw thousands of applications. Those students would become lawyers, judges and even Canada’s first female Prime Minister. She served as Chair of the Canadian Law School Admissions and on the Board of Trustees for the Law School Admissions Council. Students recall her kindness and commitment, and she hopes it contributed to their excellence in the legal community. Al was an attorney in New York with the Federal Reserve Bank and the Legal Aid Society before becoming the Assistant Librarian at the UBC Faculty of Law. During 32 years at UBC, Al’s roles included Professor of Canadian and American Law, and Chairman of the Senate Committee on Appeals on Academic Discipline and the BC Benefits Appeal Tribunal. Upon retirement, he was a Legal member of the BC Mental Health Act Review Board, and served on the boards of various tribunals. Al gave his time and sage advice to students, many of whom became well known and respected for their professional acumen. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Peter A. Allard School of Law. (First award available for the 2024/2025 winter session).
