4. Program Schedule Overview

Students are responsible for managing their time and are expected to be fully engaged while participating in the program. Students should plan their affairs accordingly given the program schedule below:

Moot runs from September (receipt of problem) until early March (oral argument). Work will be research/drafting based from September – end of January, with weekly or bi-weekly meetings (where coaches will provide guidance on research and legal writing to prepare the factum). Work likely required over the December exam period as factums are due either early or mid January depending on the team's role in the moot. Late January – early March will be focused on preparing oral argument, including practice sessions with guest lawyers. Weekly meetings during this period with ramp-up of prep sessions as the moot gets closer. Travel for the moot in early March may be required.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION RE: GRADES COLLECTION AND DISTRIBUTION

1. Do I need to include my law school grades in my application?

All moots have their own application requirements that are set out in their fact sheets. Students should carefully review each program's fact sheet to determine whether law school grades are required to apply.

2. I did not apply for a program that requires grades. Who will get access to my grades?

If you did NOT apply to any experiential learning program that requires grades, your grades will not be provided to any experiential learning programs.

3. I have concerns about providing my law school grades to an experiential learning program. What should I do?

Grades are only one component of application packages. Often, grades are just used by a program as a source of additional information about a student's interest in an area of law or as a general indication of their academic progression. You do not need to have exceptional grades to be considered a strong applicant. If you have any concerns about providing your grades to a program, please contact Zack Uganec, Manager, Student Affairs, before the application deadline.
